WHAT TO DO BEFORE APPLYING FOR FINANCIAL AID

- 1 Determine how much money you will need for your education

Ask yourself how much money you must have to cover your current obligations and then determine how much more you will need to fund your education. Do you have savings or investments that you can use to assist in the direct and indirect costs of your education? Since you will not be working, you will need a complete picture of your financial situation to determine how much financial aid is necessary.

While you may be eligible for more financial aid funding than you actually need, it cannot be stressed enough: Borrow only what you need to assist with funding your education. Financial aid should not be used for anything other than your education.
- 2 Confirm your acceptance

Before you begin the financial aid application process, make sure you contact the Admissions Office to apply for admission to the ASBN program. You may apply for financial aid while waiting for acceptance, but you must be accepted for admission before financial aid can be offered to you.
- 3 Be aware of deadlines

Regardless of the type or source of the aid for which you are applying, be aware of application deadlines, documentation requirements, and the timing of disbursements.
- 4 Explore your financial aid options

Students who have remaining Federal Direct Loan eligibility may borrow through the Direct Loan program at the annual Junior/Senior loan limits of up to $5,500 in Subsidized and $2,000 (dependent) or $7,000 (independent) Unsubsidized. No federal, state, or institutional grants are available for this program. Students are encouraged to apply for scholarships from external agencies. Links to free scholarship search engines are available on the next page.
- 5 Do your career homework

Be realistic about how much money you will earn starting out as a nurse. Do research ahead of time on annual salaries in the markets you expect to work in and the type of institutions at which you may gain employment. By knowing your expected salary and your total monthly obligations, you can estimate your ability to make loan payments each month. Loans involve interest accruals and the costs of your loan can increase significantly based on how fast you are able to pay your loan(s) back; this is important to consider as loan payments may affect you financially for years.

FINANCIAL AID OPTIONS & RESOURCES

Grants and scholarships

Grants and scholarships are often available through local organizations and private foundations and are not required to be repaid. Spending a little time doing internet research will reveal numerous options that could help fund your education.

Options to explore include:

Parents of students considered dependent based on the FAFSA may apply for the Federal Parent PLUS loan at studentloans.gov.

Any student may apply for private/alternative loans. Some lenders who offer these loans are available at <https://beta.elmselect.com/?schoolid=358#/schoolLanding>.

Outside scholarships can be found by using free scholarship search services such as fastweb.com, scholarships.com, and thescholarshipssystem.com among many others. Be sure when looking for scholarships that you mention you are working toward a second bachelor's degree and your major is nursing.

Note: No ABSN student will qualify for the Federal Pell Grant, per regulations that limit Pell Grants to the first bachelor's degree.

Loans

Federal Direct Loans are the most common type of educational loans and they are funded by the federal government. Federal Direct Loans typically offer lower interest rates than private loans and can be either Direct Subsidized Loans or Direct Unsubsidized Loans.

Federal Direct Subsidized Loans

- Offered based on financial need.
- The government pays the interest on this loan for you while you are enrolled at least 6 credit hours (half-time).
- Eligibility is determined by your Cost of Attendance less your FAFSA Expected Family Contribution less any other scholarships/grants you receive. You may receive up to $5,500 per academic year or the amount of your need, whichever is less.
- Requires you to be enrolled at least half-time (6 or more credit hours) to be eligible to receive.
- Six-month grace period before repayment begins.
- Interest begins accruing 6 months after graduation, dropping below half-time, or withdrawing from all classes. i.e. after grace period is used.

Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loans

- Not based on financial need.
- Eligibility is determined by your Cost of Attendance less the Subsidized Loan offered and any scholarships or grants offered up to an academic year total Direct Loan (subsidized + unsubsidized) of $7,500 for dependent student or $12,500 for independent students.
- Interest accrues as soon as the loan is issued.
- You may defer interest while in school, but the interest will accrue during that time.

Each student should review his/her borrowing history and current loan statuses online at studentaid.gov. It is important that students be aware of their cumulative loan debt and that they take appropriate actions to avoid default.

Aggregate Loan Limits: Students borrowing a Federal Direct Student Loan are subject to maximum allowable loan limits. The maximum Aggregate Loan Limit restricts the amount of Federal Student Loans that may be borrowed over a student's college career.

Aggregate Loan Limits – Federal Student Loans

Dependent Undergraduate Students	$31,000 *No more than $23,000 can be in subsidized loans
----------------------------------	---

Independent Undergraduate Students (and dependent students whose parents were denied a parent PLUS loan)	$57,500 *No more than $23,000 can be in subsidized loans
